

1 次は、高校生の智子 (Tomoko)、留学生のルーシー (Lucy)、谷先生 (Mr. Tani) の3人が交わした会話の一部です。会話文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

Mr. Tani: Hello, Tomoko and Lucy. What are you talking about?

Lucy: Hello, Mr. Tani. We are talking about a test about Osaka. The test is about the history and culture of Osaka. Tomoko is going to take the test this year.

Mr. Tani: Oh, I see. You are talking about Osaka Kentei, right?

Tomoko: Yes.

Mr. Tani: One of my friends has taken the test. What kinds of questions are on the test?

Tomoko: Well, questions about ① people in Osaka are often on the test. For example, some years ago, there was a question about Ogata Koan.

Lucy: Who is Ogata Koan?

Tomoko: He was a doctor. He wrote some books. And in 1838, he opened a school in Osaka. The name of his school is Tekijuku. Many young people came there ② medicine. They read books written in Dutch and learned a lot from ③ them.

Lucy: I see. You know very well about him, Tomoko.

Tomoko: Thank you. I've read many books about Osaka for the test. But I have to study more. (a)

Mr. Tani: Sure. You should visit places in Osaka, and then you will find new and interesting things there.

Lucy: I would like to know more about Osaka, too. Tomoko, let's visit some places in Osaka together next Sunday.

Tomoko: Yes, let's. How about Osaka Castle?

Lucy: Great!

(One week later)

Mr. Tani: Did you enjoy visiting Osaka Castle?

Lucy: Yes. There is a museum in the castle, and I saw many interesting things there. There is a beautiful tea ceremony room in that museum.

Tomoko: Lucy liked the tea ceremony room very much.

Mr. Tani: That's good. And how about you, Tomoko? (b)

Tomoko: Yes, I saw a very big stone in the wall near a gate of the castle. It's the biggest stone in Osaka Castle. Do you remember it?

Lucy: Yes. I was really surprised to see it.

Mr. Tani: You are talking about Takoishi. I hear it weighs about 130 tons.

Lucy: How could people in the past carry such a big stone? I want to know ④ that.

Mr. Tani: I'm not sure, but some people say a kind of sled was used to carry big stones.

Tomoko: A kind of sled? Really? I would like to know more about it.

Lucy: Tomoko, you have many things to study for the test!

Tomoko: Yes. I learned a lot by reading books. And after I visited the castle, I have become more interested in the history and culture of Osaka. I want to visit many other interesting places in Osaka. (c)

Mr. Tani: That's right!

Tomoko: And I want to tell the things I have learned about Osaka to people who come to Osaka.
