- 1 Ben: I saw your sister yesterday, Kumi. Kumi: Really? Where did you see her, Ben?
- 2 Jim: Good morning, Yumi. What are you doing?
 Yumi: Hi, Jim. I'm going to meet my friend. She will come here at nine.
 Jim: Oh, you have to wait for fifteen minutes.
- 3 Mary: Do you have a math class today, Ken?
 - Ken: Yes, Mary. My third class is math, but it's a little difficult for me.
 - Mary: Oh, what do you like to study?
 - Ken: I like English and music. I don't have an English class today, but I have a music class in the afternoon.
- 4 Last week I asked you about your favorite sport. Now I'll tell you about it. When I was a student, I enjoyed swimming. Like me, five of you like it the best. And more students like baseball better than basketball. What is the most popular sport in this class? It's soccer.
- 5 Hello. Do you like English? We have an English club at this school. Last year, eight students were in our club. Now four boys and seven girls are in our club, and those students enjoy practicing English together. Learning another language is difficult. But, you can enjoy studying English when you study with friends. For me, studying Japanese isn't easy, but I made many friends through it. I hope you'll study English hard and make many friends. Please come to our club!
- Question 1: How many students are there in the English club at this school now?
- Question 2: What did Mr. Brown do through studying Japanese?
- 6 Mika: What do you like to do in your free time, Tom?
 - Tom: I like to read books, Mika. So, I often go to the library.
 - Mika: I like to go there, too. In the library I can read books, and I often meet my friends and study together there. After studying, we sometimes play tennis in the park near the library.
 - Tom: Play tennis? That's good. I like playing tennis, too. I practiced it hard in my junior high school in Australia.
 - Mika: Really? I'm going to play tennis with my friends next Saturday. Let's play tennis together.
 - Tom: Well, I'm going to visit my friend in the morning on that day.
 - Mika: Then do you have time in the afternoon?
 - Tom: Yes.
 - Mika: We'll start to play tennis at one o'clock.
 - Tom: OK, I'll meet you at the library at twelve thirty.
- Question 1: What will Tom do in the morning next Saturday?
- Question 2: Where will Mika and Tom meet at twelve thirty next Saturday?
